

Putney joins NAI Norris, Beggs & Simpson

Posted: Monday, September 10, 2007

NAI Norris, Beggs & Simpson has hired broker Kevin Putney to its Vancouver office as part of its Capital Asset Group.

Putney will team with executive vice president H. Roger Qualman. He spent the last four years with Marcus & Millichap as an investment sales and research representative. As a transaction manager, he handled escrow management, evaluated investments, drafted contract negotiations and generated new listings and marketing packages. Putney holds a degree in business administration with a focus in real estate from Washington State University.
