

People

TECHNOLOGY AND RESEARCH

Kristin Rencher has been named to the Association of University Technology Managers Board of Trustees as the new vice president for communications. The AUTM includes a global network of members from more than 350 universities, research institutions, teaching hospitals and government agencies. Rencher is currently associate director in the Office of Technology & Research Collaborations at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland.

CONSTRUCTION AND DESIGN

Keith Christensen was promoted to general manager at Cedarlake Co. in Vancouver. Christensen will focus on tenant improvements and ground-up construction and help the company's national accounts meet their West Coast construction needs.

REAL ESTATE

NAI Norris, Beggs & Simpson has added Brandon Slater to its Vancouver office as a property manager.

NONPROFIT

Willamette West Habitat for Humanity has appointed Anna Wendt family services/volunteer coordinator. Wendt will qualify and train a diverse group of partner families and ensure the success of homeowners. She will also be responsible for managing the volunteer work force.

—Mark Graves