

BRANDON SLATER

Property Manager

Brandon Slater joined NAI Norris, Beggs & Simpson's Property Management Department in 2009. His experience in various sectors of the commercial real estate industry, along with his broad skill set and market knowledge, allows him to bring a comprehensive scope of services to property owners and tenants.

Prior to joining NAI NBS, Brandon was a Senior Consultant with Spectrum Real Estate Advisors, a boutique commercial real estate consulting firm in Portland. There he advised on commercial real estate portfolios of varying sizes, created and audited operating budgets, reviewed leases and performed building inspections. Prior to Spectrum, he spent five years with CB Richard Ellis, where he advised clients on office, retail and industrial projects and brokered over $200 million in sales. Brandon was a founding member of the CBRE National Land Group, a nationwide coalition of land acquisition and disposition specialists, and served as a board member for two years.

Brandon holds a bachelor's degree in business management and finance from Brigham Young University - Idaho, is a licensed broker in Washington and Oregon, and is fluent in Spanish.
